

Previous Programs

2015, May-June, Dali Old Town, China: Most of the clients for this program were Chinese who have done the program at least once before, including two teen-aged children, plus an Australian who came for his 6th cleanse with us. We conducted the program at a new Bai style guest house where the owners built a special room for Snow to do the colonics, with a veranda for Jolene to perform her Chinese Art of Tea.

2014, Dec 21-25, Byron Bay, Australia: This was a small private program which Snow conducted for her brother, his wife, and two children aged 12 & 18, at their home. A unique way to celebrate Christmas, with Santa Claus on the Colema Board instead of his sleigh!

2014, July 3-12, Dali Old Town, China: This was the fourth private individual program we arranged for our good friend Paul, who prefers to cleanse alone, singing O Solo Mio! as Snow pumps his bowel on board the Colema Express in his deluxe suite at the Gurong Hotel.

2014, June 20-30, Shenzhen, China: An intensive program conducted for an all-Chinese group of 10 adults and 2 children aged 10 & 12, at Luo Fu Mountain Resort in Guangdong Province, one of the most toxic places on earth. Snow kept busy by the board from 8:00 am – 8:00 pm daily, and flushed out nests of fungal colonies from the colons of almost every client in this program.

2013, Nov 2-9, Bali: We booked out the entire Temple Lodge Resort overlooking Bingin Beach in Bali for this program organized for 8 Australians, for whom it became a real roller-coaster ride, as Snow applied her deepest detox mode.

2013, July 20-26, Taiwan: A small private program for family & friends conducted at the Tian Lai Hot Springs Resort along the coast north of Taipei. Daily soaks in the potent hot spring pools & steam rooms greatly enhanced the overall detox.

2011, Oct 24-31, Byron Bay, Australia: A small private program conducted for 4 clients at a private villa in the Wilson Creek enclave in the Byron hinterland.

2011, Nov 24-Dec 20, Dali Old Town, China: A month-long “open-house” program conducted in a private villa next door to our cottage in Dali, with over a dozen clients from Europe, China, & Australia. This was the first time we included “sound detox” therapy with the new “Dream Drone” mode of the didjereedoo, with excellent results.

2010, Nov 8-Nov 30, Dali Old Town, China: Another “open-house” program conducted in a private villa near the East Gate of town that attracted nearly 20 clients from around the world, some of whom stayed to celebrate their renewed lease on life by feasting at Dan's 62nd birthday banquet at the Yang Garden Restaurant in Dali.

2010, June 21-July 31, Dali Old Town, China: This program was attended primarily by Chinese clients from Shanghai, Shenzhen, Hong Kong, & Taiwan, several of whom extended their programs for up to 10 days. Afterwards, we took the whole group for a trek up the Peach Stream trail on Evergreen Mountain.

2009, Nov 13-Nov 31, Dali Old Town, China: Conducted at the traditional Lodge of Central Harmony, one of our favorite locations, this program drew numerous people who had already done several previous programs in Dali, where the high altitude & crisp clean mountain air greatly enhance deep tissue detox.

2009, July 16-August 21, Dali Old Town, China: Another long-term "open-house" program at the Lodge of Central Harmony, with special acupressure massage treatments arranged at the nearby massage master's studio.

2009, May 5-May 25, Dali Old Town, China: One of our most successful programs at the Lodge of Central Harmony, for a mostly western clientele, almost all of whom turned out to be born in the Year of the Rat, like Dan & Snow! Snow was in powerful form for this one, releasing avalanches of toxic emotional clots & mental dross in most participants. Please see below.

Dali Detox UPDATE

We are pleased to report that our Renew Your Lease on Life detox and regeneration program here in Dali, May 2009, turned out to be one of the most successful program--and interesting groups--we've ever had. See further down this page for details of our next program later this year.....

This time, we simply posted the announcement of this program on our website, without any other promotion, and fished in more than a dozen aspirants from all over the planet. As it turns out, most of them are born in the Year of the Rat, like Snow and me, which confirms our longstanding faith in the rodent species of human beings.

Here's a photo of Snow and me and Ludmil, a Rat who hails from Bulgaria, on the day after he completed his 7-day cleanse (all our Rats opted for the full 7 days, naturally), and his face speaks for the results he got. We also got an Australian trader Rat from Hong Kong, and a champion professional bridge player Rat from Norway, plus a nurse from London. And they are still coming, today we're expecting a gaggle of Chinese colons from Taiwan, and an assortment of stragglers towards the end of May.

Everyone has experienced profoundly deep results: Snow is in top form, gently & lovingly encouraging each individual to release their clogged emotions and mental dross along with the effluvia from their bowels; and the Lodge of Central Harmony is proving to be the perfect setting for our program, so we will continue to base it here for the next year or so. Tentatively, we will offer another program at the Lodge here in Dali in mid-June, check the website for details in a week or two.

Best to One and All,

Daniel & Snow

Tui-na massage service is also available nearby or on site at extra cost; All of which, along with the location (high up in the mountains of Western China), serve to complement and greatly enhance the effects of this unique opportunity of deep tissue cleansing.

The "Renew Your Lease on Life" program represents your chance not only to cleanse and detoxify the body and mind, but also to work directly with Daniel Reid and his wife Snow.

"Our three days with Daniel and Snow changed our lives. We fasted and each day had the colonic treatment.

It was incredible. Releasing the past – all the emotional baggage, anything negative that we as humans carry around all our lives, making the road so much more difficult and the load so much heavier, was dumped. In every sense of the word We let go, we cleared out and left Dali as new people who are now so ready and equipped for the next chapter of life."

*- Chantal, Ingrid & Debbie
(who completed the previous program in October 2008)*
